12 SECTION 1.

13 Article 3 of Chapter 7 of Title 44 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to 14 dispossessory proceedings, is amended by revising Code Section 44-7-55, relating to 15 judgment, writ of possession, landlord's liability for wrongful conduct, distribution of funds 16 paid into court, and personal property, as follows:

H. B. 1203 (SUB)

17 "44-7-55.

18 (a) If, on the trial of the case, the judgment is against the tenant, judgment shall be entered 19 against the tenant for all rents due and for any other claim relating to the dispute. The court 20 shall issue a writ of possession, both of execution for the judgment amount and a writ to 21 be effective at the expiration of seven days after the date such judgment was entered, 22 except as otherwise provided in Code Section 44-7-56.

23 (b) If the judgment is for the tenant, he shall be entitled to remain in the premises and the 24 landlord shall be liable for all foreseeable damages shown to have been caused by his 25 wrongful conduct. Any funds remaining in the registry of the court shall be distributed to 26 the parties in accordance with the judgment of the court.

27 (c) Any writ of possession issued pursuant to this article shall authorize the removal of the 28 tenant or his or her personal property or both from the premises and permit the placement
29 of such personal property on some portion of the landlord's property or on other property
30 as may be designated by the landlord and as may be approved by the executing officer; 31 provided, however, that the landlord shall not be a bailee of such personal property and 32 shall owe no duty to the tenant regarding such personal property. After execution of the 33 writ, such property shall be regarded as abandoned.

34 (d) Subject to subsection (a) of this Code section and Code Section 44-7-59, applications
35 for execution of a writ of possession shall be made within 30 days of issuance of the writ
36 of possession unless such application for said writ is accompanied by an affidavit showing 37 good cause for the delay in applying for execution of the writ. The failure to execute a writ
38 in conformity with this Code section shall require the applicant to apply for a new writ.

39 (e) Nothing in this Code section shall require a sheriff, constable, or marshal to execute 40 a writ of possession within 30 days from the issuance of any order granting a writ of 41 possession, or the issuance, application, or request for the execution of the writ of 42 possession; provided, however, that in the event the sheriff, sheriff deputy, constable, or 43 marshal is unable to execute the writ within 14 days from the landlord's application or

44 request for such execution, the landlord shall be entitled to utilize the services of an 45 off-duty sheriff, sheriff deputy, constable, marshal, or other individual certified by the 46 Georgia Peace Officer Standards and Training Council having authority within the 47 jurisdiction wherein the premises lie to execute such writ at the landlord's sole cost and 48 expense. The sheriff, sheriff deputy, constable, or marshal shall maintain a list of 49 authorized off-duty sheriffs, sheriff deputies, constables, marshals, and other individuals
50 certified by the Georgia Peace Officer Standards and Training Council and make the same
51 available upon request by the landlord. The sheriff, sheriff deputy, constable or marshal 52 shall maintain administrative authority over any persons executing writs under this 53 subsection. The landlord shall provide written notice to the sheriff, sheriff deputy, 54 constable, or marshal of the date and time of the execution of the writ by such off-duty
55 sheriff, sheriff deputy, constable, marshal, or other individuals certified by the Georgia 56 Peace Officer Standards and Training Council at least five calendar days in advance of 57 such execution in order to permit the sheriff, sheriff deputy, constable, or marshal to note 58 the same within their own records."

59 SECTION 2.

60 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
