16 and for other purposes.

17 BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

SECTION 1.

Code Section 20-3-411 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to definitions regarding tuition equalization grants at private colleges and universities, is amended by revising subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) as follows:

"(A) A nonproprietary institution of higher education located in this state which is not a branch of the university system; which is not a four-year or graduate level institution of higher education that is, or is a part of, a college or university system that is owned and operated by a state other than Georgia; which is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools; which is not a graduate level school or college of theology or divinity; and which is not presently receiving state funds under Article 4 of this chapter; provided, however, that an institution which otherwise meets the requirements of this definition and of this subpart except for the lack of accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools shall be deemed to be an 'approved school' during the period that the institution holds candidate for accreditation status with the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools; provided, further, that an institution which otherwise meets the requirements of this definition and of this subpart except for the lack of accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools shall be deemed to be an 'approved school' if such institution was previously an 'approved school' under division (iii) of subparagraph (B) of this paragraph within the last five years; provided, further, that an institution which was previously accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools within the last seven years and which otherwise meets the requirements of this definition and of this subpart except for the lack of accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools shall be deemed to be an 'approved school'; provided, further, that an institution which was previously accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, is now accredited by the Transnational Association of Christian Colleges and Schools, and which otherwise meets the requirements of this definition and of this subpart except for the lack of accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools shall be deemed to be an 'approved school'; and"

SECTION 2.

Part 7 of Article 7 of Chapter 3 of Title 20 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to HOPE scholarships and grants, is amended by revising subsection (d) of Code Section 20-3-519.2, relating to eligibility requirements for a HOPE scholarship and award amount, as follows:

"(d) A student may receive the HOPE scholarship until the first of these events:

(1)(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B) of this paragraph, the student has earned a baccalaureate or first professional degree.

(B)(i) Subject to division (ii) of this subparagraph, the provisions of subparagraph (A) of this paragraph shall not apply to any student:

(I) Who continuously meets the achievement standards provided for in this Code section while concurrently seeking both a baccalaureate degree and a first professional degree; or

(II) Who continuously met the achievement standards provided for in this Code section while earning a baccalaureate degree and who, within 18 months of earning such degree, commences a graduate program at an eligible postsecondary institution, provided that he or she continuously meets such achievement standards.

(ii) Notwithstanding any provision of Code Section 20-2-161.3 to the contrary, the number of hours for which a student is eligible to receive the HOPE scholarship for a first professional degree or a graduate degree under division (i) of this subparagraph shall be reduced by the number of hours for which such student received credit for completing one or more postsecondary courses while participating in the dual enrollment program provided for in Code Section 20-2-161.3 and the cost of such postsecondary courses was paid for using state funds pursuant to such program;

(2) The student has attempted at any postsecondary institution a total of 190 quarter hours or 127 semester hours; or

(3) For those students receiving a HOPE scholarship for the first time between July 1, 2011, and June 30, 2019, seven years from a student's graduation from high school or the equivalent thereof as determined by the Georgia Student Finance Commission in its rules and regulations; provided, however, that for a student who serves in the military during such seven-year period, any such active duty military service shall not count against the seven-year period nor constitute a failure to be enrolled. For those students receiving a HOPE scholarship for the first time on or after July 1, 2019, ten years from a student's graduation from high school or the equivalent thereof as determined by the Georgia Student Finance Commission in its rules and regulations; provided, however, that for a student who serves in the military during such ten-year period, any such active duty military service shall not count against the ten-year period nor constitute a failure to be enrolled. Any full-time or part-time student receiving a HOPE scholarship and enrolled in an eligible postsecondary institution after June 30, 2019, shall remain eligible for a HOPE scholarship pursuant to this paragraph, provided that such student meets all other eligibility requirements, including, but not limited to, those set forth in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection. Students with a disability, as defined in the federal Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 12102, which prevents or substantially inhibits full-time academic study, may apply to the Georgia Student Finance Commission for a limited waiver from the applicable year limit set forth in this paragraph and request additional time to complete the first to occur of the events set forth in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection. Such application for a limited waiver shall be considered and determined by the Georgia Student Finance Commission in accordance with its rules and regulations."

SECTION 3.

Said part is further amended by repealing Code Section 20-3-519.3, which was previously reserved, and enacting a new Code section to read as follows:

"20-3-519.3.

(a) As used in this Code section, the term 'former foster youth' means an individual who is under the age of 28 years and:

(1) Is currently in the custody of the Georgia Division of Family and Children Services;

(2) Is currently participating in the Division of Family and Children Services independent living program in accordance with applicable policies and procedures;

(3) Whose family currently receives or previously received state funded adoption services as provided for in Code Section 49-5-8; or

(4) Is an adopted child who was in the permanent legal custody of and placed for adoption by the Division of Family and Children Services following the child's fourteenth birthday, including any such individual who, at the time of application to a public postsecondary educational institution, resides outside of Georgia due to such placement.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of Code Section 20-3-519.2 to the contrary, a former foster youth who has not previously received a HOPE scholarship or previously met the eligibility requirements for a HOPE scholarship as provided in Code Section 20-3-519.2 shall be deemed eligible for a HOPE scholarship for up to 30 semester hours or 45 quarter hours, provided that such former foster youth:

(1) Meets eligibility requirements provided for in subsection (a) of Code Section 20-3-519.1 and does not meet any of the ineligibility criteria provided for in subsection (b) of Code Section 20-3-519.1; and

(2) Maintains satisfactory academic progress in accordance with the standards and practices used for federal Title IV programs by the institution at which the student is enrolled."

SECTION 4.

123 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
