

House Bill 1044

By: Representatives Roberts of the 52nd, Park of the 107th, Crawford of the 89th, Miller of the 62nd, Evans of the 57th, and others

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

1 To amend Chapter 1 of Title 51 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to 2 general provisions regarding torts, so as to provide for remedies for deprivation of 3 constitutional rights of state citizens by civil immigration enforcement officers; to provide 4 for definitions; to provide for a short title; to provide for related matters; to repeal conflicting
5 laws; and for other purposes.

6 BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

7 SECTION 1.

8 Chapter 1 of Title 51 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to general
9 provisions regarding torts, is amended by adding a new Code section to read as follows:

10 "51-1-58.

11 (a) As used in this Code section, the term:

12 (1) 'Crowd control equipment' means kinetic impact projectiles, compressed air
13 launchers, such as PLS and FN303, oleoresin capsicum spray, CS gas, CN gas, or other
14 chemical irritants, 40 millimeter munitions launchers, less-lethal shotguns, less-lethal 15 specialty impact-chemical munitions, controlled noise and light distraction devices, and 16 electronic control weapons.

17 (2) 'Facial covering' means a facial covering designed to protect against exposure to 18 smoke during a state of emergency related to wildfires, or protective gear used by special 19 weapons and tactics team officers necessary to protect their faces from harm while they 20 perform their responsibilities, but does not include medical grade masks designed to 21 prevent the transmission of diseases.

22 (3) 'Prevailing party' means any individual:

23 (A) Who obtains some of his or her requested relief through a judicial judgment in his 24 or her favor;

25 (B) Who obtains some of his or her requested relief through any settlement agreement
26 approved by a court of competent jurisdiction; or

27 (C) Whose pursuit of a nonfrivolous claim was a catalyst for a unilateral change in 28 position by the opposing party relative to the relief sought.

29 (b) Any resident of this state, other than an officer or employee of a state or local 30 governmental entity in this state, may bring a civil action against any person who, while 31 participating in civil immigration enforcement, knowingly engages in conduct that violates 32 the United States Constitution or the Constitution of this state.

33 (c) All monetary, injunctive, and declaratory relief available at common law is available
34 under this Code section for a violation of this Code section without regard to whether a
35 plaintiff may have a claim under any other statute or common law cause of action. If a 36 plaintiff seeks punitive damages against a defendant who committed a violation of this 37 Code section while acting under color of law, the following shall be factors in determining 38 the reprehensibility of the defendant's conduct whether:

39 (1) The defendant wore a facial covering while committing the violation;

40 (2) At the time of the violation, the defendant was a law enforcement officer who failed
41 to identify or disclose that he or she was a law enforcement officer either verbally or by 42 wearing identifying insignia, such as a badge, agency logo, or patch, or by providing his 43 or her name, badge or identification number, and the employing agency or department;

44 (3) At the time of the violation, the defendant was a law enforcement officer who was 45 required by state or federal law or regulation or agency policy to wear and use an 46 officer-worn body camera during the type of activity that gave rise to the deprivation of 47 rights and failed to do so;

48 (4) The defendant was operating or using a motor vehicle without a license plate;

49 (5) The defendant used crowd control equipment at the time of the violation; or

50 (6) The defendant intentionally violated or failed to comply with any material term or 51 condition of a court order or consent decree that was issued by a court that applied to the 52 person acting under color of law, and that was issued or entered into in part to address or 53 prevent future violations of this Code section relating to the conduct complained of.

54 (d) Upon motion, a court shall award reasonable attorney's fees and costs, including expert
55 witness fees and other litigation expenses, to a plaintiff who is a prevailing party in any 56 action brought under this Code section. In awarding reasonable attorney's fees, the court
57 shall consider the degree to which the relief obtained relates to the relief sought."

58 SECTION 2.

59 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
