

Senate Resolution 748

By: Senators Harrell of the 40th, McLaurin of the 14th, Orrock of the 36th, Halpern of the 39th, Parent of the 44th and others

A RESOLUTION

1 Honoring the lives and memory of Anne Isenhower and her son, Max Podowitz; and for 2 other purposes.

3 WHEREAS, Anne Isenhower was a longtime resident of Dunwoody, Georgia, and a highly 4 respected public relations professional whose career was marked by integrity, generosity, and 5 a deep commitment to public service and community engagement; and

6 WHEREAS, Anne was trusted by journalists, admired by colleagues, and known for her 7 willingness to mentor young professionals, opening doors for others, sharing her expertise, 8 and lifting up voices and causes she believed in; and

9 WHEREAS, Anne believed deeply in human rights, civic participation, and the values of 10 decency, justice, and fairness, and she lived those principles daily through her work, her 11 advocacy, and her engagement in her community; and

12 WHEREAS, Anne gave her time and talents generously to causes and campaigns she cared 13 about, offering thoughtful counsel, creative insight, and steadfast support, and was known 14 for being fully committed to the people and work she believed in; and

15 WHEREAS, Anne's greatest joy was her beloved son, Max Podowitz, for whom she 16 expressed profound love and devotion, and whose life was central to everything she did; and

17 WHEREAS, Max Podowitz was a freshman at New York University, a talented guitarist with 18 a gentle spirit, intellectual curiosity, and creative promise, whose kindness and 19 thoughtfulness left a lasting impression on those who knew him; and

20 WHEREAS, Anne and Max shared a close bond and a deep compassion for others, working 21 together to support causes reflecting their shared values, including animal welfare, and were 22 members of the Georgia House Rabbit Society, united by their care for vulnerable creatures; 23 and

24 WHEREAS, the sudden and tragic loss of Max Podowitz in early December was a 25 devastating blow to his family and community, and the profound grief that followed led, 26 shortly thereafter, to the passing of Anne Isenhower, leaving an immeasurable void in the 27 lives of those who loved them; and

28 WHEREAS, the lives of Anne Isenhower and Max Podowitz stand as a testament to love, 29 generosity, mentorship, and a belief in a more just and compassionate world.

30 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE that the members of this body 31 honor the lives and memory of Anne Isenhower and her son, Max Podowitz; recognize their 32 contributions to their community and the causes they cared deeply about; and extend their 33 deepest and most sincere regret at their passing.

34 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate is authorized and directed 35 to make an appropriate copy of this resolution available for distribution to the family of Anne 36 Isenhower and Max Podowitz.
