6 the Medical College of Georgia, and as associate director of the Vascular Biology Center, 7 where leads and mentors to faculty, trainees, and research teams; and
- 8 WHEREAS, he earned his medical degree from Tulane University, completed his internal 9 medicine training at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and Emory University, 10 and further specialized through a fellowship in cardiovascular diseases; and
- 11 WHEREAS, Dr. Weintraub has made a profound impact on medical education, teaching 12 more than 225 courses for future physicians and physicians-scientist, and contributing to 13 more than 250 peer-reviewed publications that have advanced understanding of 14 cardiometabolic disease; and

15 WHEREAS, he helped launch the cardio-oncology program at the Medical College of 16 Georgia, funded by the American Heart Association, to investigate the bidirectional 17 relationship between cardiovascular disease and cancer, strengthening the medical school and 18 its teaching hospital's leadership in the field; and

19 WHEREAS, Dr. Weintraub's scientific accomplishments have been sustained by a long and 20 successful history of funding from the National Institutes of Health, including multiple 21 federally supported research grants that have advanced fundamental and translational 22 discoveries in cardiovascular medicine; and

23 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that this outstanding Georgian be 24 appropriately recognized.

25 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES that 26 the members of this body recognize and commend Neal Weintraub, M.D., and extend best 27 wishes for continued health, happiness, and success.

28 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Clerk of the House of Representatives is authorized 29 and directed to make an appropriate copy of this resolution available for distribution to Neal
30 Weintraub, M.D.
