

The House Committee on Ways and Means offers the following substitute to SB 566:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

1 To amend Chapter 5 of Title 48 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to ad
2 valorem taxation of property, so as to revise required information for bills and notices of 3 assessment for ad valorem taxation of property; to revise definitions, limits, and procedures
4 related to a state-wide base year homestead exemption; to provide for annual submissions
5 and review of homestead information across the state; to expand the period of time within 6 which taxpayers may apply for homestead exemptions; to provide for penalties for failing
7 to report ineligibility for a homestead exemption; to make conforming changes; to provide
8 for an effective date and applicability; to provide for related matters; to repeal conflicting
9 laws; and for other purposes.

10 BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

11 SECTION 1.

12 Chapter 5 of Title 48 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to ad valorem
13 taxation of property, is amended by revising Code Section 48-5-34, relating to tax bill and 14 procedures and requirements, as follows:

S. B. 566 (SUB)

15 "48-5-34.

16 (a) In addition to any other requirements provided by law, the ad valorem property tax bill
 17 form shall be prepared annually by the county tax commissioner or collector and furnished
 18 to each taxpayer who owes state, county, or county school tax for the current tax year. The 19 form shall provide for each given levying authority and recommending authority:

20 (1) ~~The~~ the total amount of such taxes levied on property owned by the taxpayer;

21 (2) ~~The~~ the amount of property tax credit granted by Act of the 1973 Session of 22 Georgia's General Assembly, and by which such taxes were reduced as a result of 23 exemptions, credits, and preferential assessments that were applied to such property, if 24 any; and

25 (3) ~~The~~ the net amount of such taxes due for the current tax year.

26 (b) ~~In addition to the requirements of subsection (a) of this Code section, if the millage rate~~
 27 ~~adopted by a taxing authority exceeds the estimated roll-back rate and such estimated~~
 28 ~~roll-back rate was provided in the annual notice of assessment, such tax bill shall include~~
 29 ~~a notice containing the name of such taxing authority and the following statement in bold~~
 30 ~~print: 'The adopted millage rate exceeds the estimated roll-back rate as stated in the annual~~
 31 ~~notice of assessment that you previously received for this taxable year, which will result~~
 32 ~~in an increase in the amount of property tax that you will owe.'~~

33 (c)(1) ~~If the governing authority of a county, consolidated government, municipality, or~~
 34 ~~school district elected to opt out of the homestead exemption provided for in Code~~
 35 ~~Section 48-5-44.2 and there is not in effect for such political subdivision a base year~~
 36 ~~value homestead exemption or adjusted base year value homestead exemption that is~~ 37 ~~generally applicable for homestead residents, each ad valorem property tax bill issued by~~
 38 ~~such political subdivision for homestead properties shall contain a notice in bold print~~
 39 ~~that corresponds with the following statement:~~

40 ~~'[Name of the political subdivision] chose to opt out of property tax relief for~~ 41 ~~homeowners related to HB 581 (2024). If you have concerns about that decision,~~

42 ~~please call [the main telephone number for the levying or recommending authority of~~ 43 ~~the political subdivision].'~~

44 ~~(2) The provisions of paragraph (1) of this subsection shall not apply for any taxable year~~
 45 ~~beginning after December 31, 2029."~~

46 SECTION 2.

47 Said chapter is further amended in Code Section 48-5-44.2, relating to base year homestead
 48 exemption, by revising paragraphs (2), (3), and (7) of subsection (a) and revising subsections
 49 (d) and (e) as follows:

50 "(2) 'Adjusted base year assessed value' means the sum of:

51 (A) The previous adjusted base year assessed value;

52 (B) An amount equal to the difference between the current year assessed value of the 53 homestead and the base year assessed value of the homestead, provided that such 54 amount shall not exceed the total of the previous adjusted base year assessed value of 55 the homestead multiplied by the inflation rate for the prior year; and

56 (C) The value of any substantial property change, provided that no ~~such value added~~
 57 ~~improvements to the homestead~~ substantial property change shall be duplicated as to 58 the same addition, ~~or improvement,~~ or removal of real property.

59 (3) 'Base year assessed value' means:

60 (A) With respect to an exemption under this Code section which is first granted to a 61 person on such person's homestead for the 2025 taxable year, the assessed value for 62 taxable year 2024, including any final determination of value on appeal pursuant to 63 Code Section 48-5-311, of the homestead after adjustment due to any substantial
 64 property change which occurred during or after taxable year 2024, provided that no
 65 such adjustment shall be duplicated as to the same addition, improvement, or removal 66 of real property; or

67 (B) In all other cases, the assessed value, including any final determination of value on 68 appeal pursuant to Code Section 48-5-311, of the homestead from the taxable year
69 immediately preceding the taxable year in which the exemption under this Code section 70 is first granted to the applicant for such homestead after adjustment due to any 71 substantial property change which occurred during or after the taxable year used to 72 establish the base year assessed value for that homestead, provided that no such 73 adjustment shall be duplicated as to the same addition, improvement, or removal of real 74 property."

75 "(7) 'Substantial property change' means any increase or decrease in the assessed value
76 of a homestead derived from additions or improvements to, or the removal of real 77 property from, the homestead which occurred during or after the year in which used to 78 establish the base year assessed value ~~is determined~~ for the homestead. The assessed 79 value of the substantial property changes shall be established following any final 80 determination of value on appeal pursuant to Code Section 48-5-311."

81 "(d) No person shall receive the exemption granted by subsection (b) of this Code section
82 unless such person or person's agent files an application with the tax receiver or tax 83 commissioner of his or her respective local government or governments charged with the 84 duty of receiving returns of property for taxation giving such information relative to 85 receiving such exemption as will enable such tax receiver or tax commissioner to make a 86 determination regarding the initial and continuing eligibility of such person for such 87 exemption; provided, however, that any person who had previously applied for a
88 homestead exemption, was allowed such homestead exemption for the ~~2024~~ immediately
89 preceding tax year, and remains eligible for a homestead exemption for that same 90 homestead property in the ~~2025~~ current tax year shall be automatically allowed the 91 exemption granted under subsection (b) of this Code section for that homestead without 92 further application. Such tax receiver or tax commissioner shall provide application forms 93 for this purpose.

94 (e)(1) The exemption granted by subsection (b) or (c) of this Code section shall be 95 claimed and returned as provided in Code Section 48-5-50.1. Such exemption shall be 96 automatically renewed from year to year so long as the owner occupies the residence as 97 a homestead. After a person or a person's agent has filed the proper application or is 98 automatically granted the homestead exemption as provided in subsection (d) of this
99 Code section, it shall not be necessary for such person or such person's surviving spouse 100 to make application thereafter for any year, and the exemption shall continue to be 101 allowed to such person or such person's surviving spouse. It shall be the duty of any 102 person granted the homestead exemption under subsection (b) or (c) of this Code section
103 to notify the tax receiver or tax commissioner of the local government or governments
104 in the event such person for any reason becomes ineligible for such exemption.

105 (2) In the event that an applicant becomes ineligible for the homestead exemption
106 granted under subsection (b) or (c) of this Code section with respect to a particular 107 homestead property and, thereafter, the applicant becomes eligible and applies for the 108 homestead exemption on such property, the base year assessed value for such homestead
109 shall be calculated in accordance with subparagraph (a)(3)(B) of this Code section as if 110 the applicant were a new applicant who had not been previously granted an exemption
111 under this Code section for such homestead."

112 SECTION 3.

113 Said chapter is further amended in Code Section 48-5-45, relating to application for 114 homestead exemption and unlawful to solicit fee to file application for homestead for 115 another, by revising subsections (a) and (b) as follows:

116 "(a)(1) An applicant seeking a homestead exemption as provided in Code Section
117 48-5-44 and qualifying under the provisions of Code Section 48-5-40 shall file a written 118 application and schedule with the tax receiver or tax commissioner charged with the duty
119 of receiving returns of property for taxation ~~at any time~~ during the a calendar year

120 subsequent to the property becoming the primary residence of the applicant at any time
 121 up to and including ~~the date for the closing of the books for the return of taxes for the~~ 122 ~~calendar year, except that, in the case of a property which is subject to a reassessment by~~ 123 ~~the board of tax assessors, the final date to file an appeal of the annual notice of current~~ 124 assessment. Any such application and schedule may be filed in conjunction with or in 125 lieu of an appeal of the reassessment.

126 (2) The failure to file properly the application and schedule on or before the ~~date for the~~
 127 ~~closing of the books for the return of taxes of a calendar year in which the taxes are due~~ 128 applicable deadline under paragraph (1) of this subsection shall constitute a waiver of the 129 homestead exemption on the part of the applicant failing to make the application for such 130 exemption for that year.

131 (b) The owner of a homestead which is actually occupied by the owner as a residence and 132 homestead shall not have to apply for the exemption more than once so long as the owner
 133 remains in continuous occupation of the residence as a homestead. The exemption shall 134 automatically be renewed from year to year so long as the owner continuously occupies the 135 residence as a homestead. In the event any person granted the exemption becomes 136 ineligible for such exemption, such person shall notify the tax receiver or tax commissioner
 137 charged with the duty of receiving returns of property for taxation on or before the final 138 date to file an appeal of the annual notice of current assessment."

139 SECTION 4.

140 Said chapter is further amended by adding a new Code section to read as follows:

141 "48-5-51.1.

142 (a) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2026, in the event that a person fails 143 to report his or her ineligibility for any homestead exemption that is listed on the annual 144 notice of current assessment for the property by the final date to file an appeal of such 145 notice, the property shall be appropriately billed for all taxes and interest due and a penalty

146 shall be imposed in an amount equal to 50 percent of the amount by which the taxes were 147 to be reduced from exemptions and credits for which the taxpayer was ineligible.

148 (b) Each taxpayer shall be notified in writing at the taxpayer's last known address as it
149 appears on the latest records of the tax commissioner or tax collector of the reasons for the 150 denial or removal of a homestead exemption pursuant to this Code section. Any such 151 taxpayer shall be entitled to appeal the removal of the homestead exemption and the 152 application of penalties in the same manner provided in Code Section 48-5-311.

153 (c) The local tax receiver or tax commissioner shall collect and remit any tax, penalty, or 154 interest due under this Code section in the same manner as other taxes."

155 SECTION 5.

156 Said chapter is further amended by adding a new Code section to read as follows:

157 "48-5-57.

158 Recognizing the importance and value of properly granting and continually allowing 159 homestead exemptions, each local tax official charged by law with the duty of reviewing 160 applications for homestead exemptions shall submit to the department a list of taxpayers 161 that have been granted or denied a homestead exemption for property within its 162 jurisdiction. Such submissions shall be made annually for each taxing jurisdiction at the 163 same time as the county digest is submitted to the commissioner. The commissioner shall 164 maintain a list of homestead information throughout the state in a manner which allows
165 local tax officials access to review and ensure accuracy of their jurisdiction's properties
166 receiving homestead exemptions. Each such local tax official shall review said list prior 167 to approving a homestead exemption and on an annual basis prior to issuing the notices of 168 assessment for the taxing jurisdiction."

169 SECTION 6.

170 Said chapter is further amended in Code Section 48-5-306, relating to annual notice of 171 current assessment, contents, posting notice, and new assessment description, by revising
172 subsection (b) as follows:

173 "(b) Contents of notice.

174 (1) The annual notice of current assessment required to be given by the county board of 175 tax assessors under subsection (a) of this Code section shall be dated and shall contain 176 the name and last known address of the taxpayer pursuant to Code Section 48-5-10. The 177 annual notice shall be given on the applicable state-wide assessment notice form which 178 shall be established by the commissioner by rule and regulation and shall contain:

 208 Committee.

209 ~~(I)(i) The current year's estimated roll-back rate for each levying or recommending~~
 210 ~~authority that certified its estimated roll-back rate for the current year to the county~~
 211 ~~board of tax assessors and county tax commissioner by the date specified under Code~~
 212 ~~Section 48-5-306.2; or~~

213 ~~(ii) For each levying or recommending authority that did not certify its estimated roll-~~
 214 ~~back rate to the county board of tax assessors and county tax commissioner by the~~
 215 ~~date specified in Code Section 48-5-306.2, the millage rate that was actually levied~~
 216 ~~by or on behalf of such authority for the previous tax year, and an estimate of the~~
 217 ~~amount of ad valorem taxes due for the assessed property based on such millage rate~~
 218 ~~and the amount of the current assessment.~~

219 (2) In addition to the items required under paragraph (1) of this subsection, the notice 220 shall contain a statement of the taxpayer's right to an appeal and other information which 221 shall be in substantially the following form:

222 ~~'The amount of your ad valorem tax bill for this year will be based on the~~ 223 ~~appraised and assessed values specified in this notice. You have the right to~~ 224 ~~appeal these values to the county board of tax assessors.~~

225 ~~At the time of filing your appeal you must select one of the following options:~~

226 ~~(A) An appeal to the county board of equalization with appeal to the superior~~

232 ~~property as defined in subparagraph (e.1)(1)(B) of Code Section 48-5-311 with~~ 233 ~~an aggregate fair market value in excess of $500,000.00 as shown on the~~ 234 ~~taxpayer's annual notice of current assessment under this Code section, to a~~
235 ~~hearing officer with appeal to the superior court.~~

236 ~~If you wish to file an appeal, you must do so in writing no later than 45 days after~~
237 ~~the date of this notice. If you do not file an appeal by this date, your right to file~~
238 ~~an appeal will be lost. For further information on the proper method for filing an~~ 239 ~~appeal, you may contact the county board of tax assessors which is located at:~~ 240 ~~(insert address) and which may be contacted by telephone at: (insert telephone~~ 241 ~~number).~~

242 'You have the right to appeal the property values provided in this notice. You may 243 also apply for homestead exemptions if your property was owned and occupied
244 as your family's primary residence and homestead as of January 1 of (insert 245 current tax year).

246 If you wish to appeal your (insert current tax year) property value or apply for 247 homestead exemptions, you must do so in writing no later than 45 days after the

248 date of this notice. If you do not file an appeal or apply for homestead exemption
 249 by this date, your right to do so for this year will be lost.

250 You are required by law to notify (insert name of appropriate local tax 251 official) if you become ineligible for any homestead exemption listed in this 252 notice and subject to penalties for failing to do so.

253 For further information on filing appeals, applying for homestead exemptions, or 254 reporting your ineligibility for a homestead exemption, visit or contact (insert 255 name of appropriate local tax official, board, or office together with their 256 respective website, address, and telephone number or, in the event that one or 257 more local tax officials, boards, or offices is responsible for such duties, insert the 258 names and identify the responsibilities of the appropriate local tax officials,
 259 boards, or offices together with their respective websites, addresses, and telephone 260 numbers).

261 Please note: Tax rates for counties, school districts, and cities will be established
 262 by each local government later this year. If a local government intends to increase
 263 revenue on existing properties, they must advertise and hold three public meetings
 264 to do so.'

265 (3) The annual notice required under this Code section shall be mailed no later than July
 266 1; provided, however, that the annual notice required under this Code section may be sent
 267 later than July 1 for the purpose of notifying property owners of corrections and mapping 268 changes."

269 SECTION 7.

270 Said chapter is further amended by repealing Code Section 48-5-306.2, relating to annual 271 calculation and certification of estimated roll-back rate, in its entirety.

272 SECTION 8.

273 Said chapter is further amended in Code Section 48-5-2, relating to definitions, by repealing
274 paragraph (2.1).

275 SECTION 9.

276 (a) This Act shall become effective upon its approval by the Governor or upon its becoming 277 law without such approval.

278 (b) This Act shall be applicable to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2026.

279 SECTION 10.

280 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
